

Do not put forth any proposal that will lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law protections! I used to receive 3-4 unwanted calls a day, now receive maybe one a week. I was reminded recently that we are very fortunate in this state, compared to California where I recently visited my daughter. I would hate to see our protections eroded with a less stringent Federal law superceding our state statute.